

General Tips:

- You do not need to fill up the whole poster: shorter is more focused.
- Don't try and do this on your own, or just by sitting down and writing - use the suggested exercises in the session plan and presentation or your own creative exercises.

Vision Tips:

- How will you know if you're not needed anymore?
- Can you imagine what it looks like for a single person - not just a perfect society?
- Does this tackle the joint crisis of people and planet?

Obstacle Tips:

- Are the obstacles we are naming what is really preventing our vision from happening?
- Are we limiting ourselves to thinking of what is possible, rather than what is needed?
- Are our solutions to these obstacles really just activities? Are they big enough?

Activities Tips:

- Are we just listing activities we have done before? How do they help with our solutions?
- Are our audiences too broad (like 'students', 'businesses') or can we make them specific?
- Do we only have audiences we target - or can we campaign with some of them as allies?
